That made it hard to believe her about parts of the Amish culture I didn't know. .

Plain Truth, 17 November 1747

This will come as a real surprise to many. I didn't like the main character, Katie, she came across as cold and distant and I found it difficult to muster up any feeling for her. No; Let the Trade perish, and the City burn; let what will happen, we shall never lift a Finger to prevent it.

Plain Truth (novel)

This would make for such a funny book, and people could so relate.
