The acceleration of change towards the end of the century is often attributed to the new technologies, particularly in communications, but equally important are forces of globalisation, biotechnology and lifestyle patterns in which the extraordinary becomes the everyday, the sensational the taken for granted.

The Clutter Culture

Today's action figure is tomorrow's historical artifact. Her first novel, La Voyeuse interdite 1991 Forbidden Vision , won the Prix du Livre Inter, and she was awarded the Prix Renaudot for Mes mauvaises pensées 2005 My Bad Thoughts.

This work has also coincided with a discussion of the ways that credibility can suffer in the cases of such people, as they cannot develop coherent stories of either their abuse or their lives. .

The Clutter Culture

Boros believes in the healing power of transformative public art, and in this compelling and needed work proves herself to be a talented writer who can convey complicated ideas in a lucid manner.
