The land question

The noble and learned lord, being a great lawyer, kiows that the law of England professes in the matter of mar- riage to be foimded on the Word of God. And it is a great thing to be permitted to speak some word, to do some act, that shall make men better, that shall make them see the truth more clearly and love righteousness more earnestly. I know that it is not possible in single day may be over a period of time its possible.
