It also rejected the Court of Appeal's determination that the substantive outcome of the OSC proceedings was irrelevant. Vermont Yankee The Vermont Yankee nuclear power plant, which provides more than one-third of the Company's power supply, did not experience a scheduled refueling outage in 2000.

The Companies Act

PayPal will not issue paper stock certificates in respect of the PayPal Shares. Even though IQT Solutions had been ordered to pay back wages to some of the putative class members by the Ontario Labour Relations Board, Justice Perell found that these class members, as well as the class members who were not subject to the OLRB order could proceed with a class-action for, amongst other things, negligence, conspiracy, including breach of contract and oppression. To date, the largest number of notices of intention to participate filed in any single rate setting proceeding has not exceeded 81, and even in that proceeding, only 27 parties actually participated.
