These broader trends played out in interesting ways in much of sub-Saharan Africa. Behavioural economics combines experimental and field evidence with insights from neighbouring disciplines such as psychology, to develop richer economic models of decision-making.

Table S Electives

This vision is meant to be realised through a highly focused, strongly normative and popular agenda that is cognisant of the importance of ... mobilization of the people and their ownership of continental programmes at the core; the principle of self-reliance and Africa financing its own development; the importance of capable, inclusive and accountable states and institutions at all levels and in all spheres; the critical role of Regional Economic Communities as building blocks for continental unity. What is the historical importance of the environment to ideas of belonging and national identity? Evaluation and assessment are often misunderstood concepts. This unit will examine themes from the field of Research in Language Teaching and Learning Sprachlehrforschung as well as the theoretical and practical aspects of German as a foreign language Deutsch als Fremdsprache.
