As Mission in Liberia Closes, Security Council Intends to Consider Best Practices in Ongoing Efforts to Enhance Effectiveness of Peacekeeping

For the past 15 years, the former rebel leader, who has converted to Christianity, has regularly gone to meet former combatants, now adults, in the poor districts of Monrovia.

The Liberian Economy: The Path From Loot To Development

Liberia would also continue to require support, including for its national institutions and for expanding its social services. The Security Council underlines significant improvements in social cohesion, the overall security situation in Liberia and progress on respect for human rights, all of which play crucial roles in consolidating peace and stability.

Path to War (TV Movie 2002)

This is due to countless accounts from victims about police enforcing senseless brutality and partaking in bribery dealings. It was the final film directed by Frankenheimer, who died seven weeks after the film debuted on HBO. However, over time, the government has taken necessary action to eradicate this practice such as enforcing reformed forest laws and canceling wartime contracts.

Path to War (TV Movie 2002)

Prince Johnson -- another notorious war figure who has also become an evangelist -- is the head of the Liberian Senate Committee on Defense and Intelligence.

10 Facts About Corruption in Liberia

However, the root causes of the conflict must continue to be addressed, including a stagnant economy, human rights violations and land reform, especially now that UNMIL had ended its mandate.
