From the foremost of his students are: his two sons, Salih and Abdullah, Hanbal ibn Ishaq, al-Marrudhi, al-Kawsaj, Ibn Hani, Abu Dawud compiler of Sunan Abi Dawud, al-Athram, Abu Zur'ah al-Razi, Abu Hatim al-Razi, 'Abdul-Wahhab al-Warraq, al-Tirmidhi and many others. He was chiefly interested in acquiring knowledge of Ahadeeth and traveled extensively through Iraq, Syria, Arabia and other places in the Middle East studying religion and collecting the ahadeeth of Prophet Muhammad, sallallahu 'alayhi wa sallam. For example, property which was unjustly confiscated was returned to the owners.

Some say it applies to situations when a woman leaves the house without the permission of her husband.

Imaam Ahmad bin Hanbal

Gradually Zaidi obtained his BA degree. In 1991, Rushdie's Japanese translator, Hitoshi Igarashi, was stabbed and killed in Tokyo, and his Italian translator was beaten and stabbed in Milan. Proper training channellises these emotions on to the right track, rather than them being wrongly used.
