

French-Canadian settlement in Waterville Township, Pepin Co., Wisconsin

V.E. DeMarce - Josephine Philomen (Juliot) Brunette (1866

Description: -

-

Waterville (Wis. : Town) -- Genealogy.

French-Canadians -- Wisconsin -- Waterville (Town) --

Genealogy. French-Canadian settlement in Waterville Township, Pepin Co., Wisconsin

-French-Canadian settlement in Waterville Township, Pepin Co., Wisconsin

Notes: Includes bibliography.

This edition was published in 1987

Filesize: 48.110 MB

Tags: #Biographies #in #Pepin #County, #Wisconsin

PDF Family Maps Of Pepin County Wisconsin eBook Download Full

Wisconsin Territory's first Dane arrived in 1829, and by 1860 the state's Danish-born population had reached 1,150. While engaged in clearing his land, he worked at intervals for others, and he and his wife often walked to and from Eau Galle, a distance of twenty-five miles each way, carrying provisions, the children remaining at home during their absence. The father was born in Yorkshire, England, March 31, 1817, and was a farmer by occupation.

Biographies in Pepin County, Wisconsin

. At the beginning of World War I in 1914, the majority of Wisconsin residents were of German origin or descent, but this had declined to 40 percent by 1930.

Wisconsin Genealogy

Many were farmers, but some also worked in the lumber camps and as domestic servants.

[PDF] The French Canadian Settlement In Waterville Township Pepin Co W

Practically all of his industrial career up to the present time has been spent on this place, as he has never worked away from home two months in his life. A year later he purchased the farm on which he had been brought up and has since resided here.

PDF Family Maps Of Pepin County Wisconsin Download Full

He belongs to the Modern Woodmen of America at Arkansaw, being one of the officers of the camp.

OCLC Classify

Meixner was united in marriage with Ruth Clara Hill, who was born in Waterville township, near Arkansaw, daughter of Pearl and Hannah Gushelbauer Hill. After a few moments of stunned silence, the angry mob slowly dispersed. MAHER, who is actively participating in the industrial life of the busy little city of Durand as proprietor of a woodworking shop, was born in Eau Galle township, Dunn county, Wisconsin, June 20, 1885.

The Demographic Statistical Atlas of the United States

. There were four children born of the first union, of whom the subject of this memoir was the third in order of birth, and is the only one now living.

Read Download The French Canadian Settlement In Waterville Township Pepin Co Wisconsin PDF

The Center is located in Madison, Wis. McCain lived on his Pepin County farm until his death in 1887. French French-Canadians were the earliest European immigrants in Wisconsin.

Related Books

- Bodoni - linvenzione della semplicità
- Perché barbari? - lingua, comunicazione e identità nella società globale
- After the revolutions - East-West trade and technology transfer in the 1990s
- Ideal-viscoplastic extrusion model with application to deforming pistons in light-gas guns
- North Channel Environmental Assessment.