Wreath Of Christmas Legends by Phyllis McGinley

A year without a Christmas Would be boring, even tragic. I believe there are gifts more important than the ones under the Christmas tree, the things we teach our children, the way we share ourselves with friends, and the industry with which we set about reshaping the world in our time.

The Legend of the Christmas Wreath: Christmas Prayer Card

While we are surrounded by Christmas comforts, we remember soldiers in places we would not want to be, bringing the gift of adaptability to any situation, no matter how harsh or difficult.

Christmas Poems About Jesus and His True Meaning

We hope these poems help to enrich your family life as you anticipate the coming of Christ! To the top of the porch! How small the world seems now compared to the atom. Its the center of light, and love. John Paul II December 19, 1999 John Paul II, in his Angelus message of December 19, 1999, explained that Christmas is not simply the remembrance of the Event that took place 2000 years ago when, according to the Gospel, the power of God took on the frailty of a baby.

Christmas Poems About Jesus and His True Meaning

He goes down one, comes back alive, And then tries two, three, four, and five. Your Coming, Lord, do not forestall. A miracle that happened long ago, Still stops our world and shines a glow.

Terra Garden: My new and old Christmas wreaths and a poem written in the 1600s

Christmas is... Source Unknown Christmas is a gift of love wrapped in human flesh and tied securely with the strong promises of God.

Christmas Wreath Meaning: Traditions & Symbolism

Then for others he is toiling and somehow it seems to me That at Christmas he is almost what God wanted him to be. So the shepherds ventured

Through the white cold, And their eyes beheld the Infant, An hour old. Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough; to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same home with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings.
