Acting & Directing Emphasis

OVERVIEW Explore your theatrical expression and develop the technical and narrative skills needed for a successful and rewarding career in acting and directing. Students who fail to complete this requirement will not be approved for graduation with a theater major: acting and directing emphasis. The directing component of this emphasis prepares young directors through extensive preparation of scenes and eventually student-directed productions.

How to Direct a Play

But not rehearsing makes the characters hollow and empty, you'll have no toolbox or common language on the set, and the acting won't be ready for prime time. The stage remains at the centre of our attention. Always come back to these questions.
