Julie - I sure wish you could see the Crafton I grew up in.

The Story of Crafton, 1740

The terracing of the townhouses into the hillsides shows respect for the terrain and gives a beneficial visual variety to the massing and roof line of the housing.

The Story of Crafton, 1740

During October, 1896, the society gave an excursion to Ligonier. The French Eclectic style touches occur in the roof shapes of the store and tool shed buildings, and the plank doors of the tool sheds. An excursion to Ohio Pyle falls and Bear Run was given May 1, and wonderfully good phtographs were made.
