Competition now comes from such rapidly developing economies as China, India, Turkey, Brazil, and Russia, economies that not only offer employment, but the promise of sustained growth and opportunity. Or the billions of dollars being poured into health care to help address the needs of an aging population. That will result in a continued flow of investment away from traditionally labour intensive, blue collar industries — a move that could ignite socio-economic tensions.

Rethinking Decolonization*

The most pressing problem related to the high level of taxation is the aforementioned brain drain.

The Decline and Fall of the American Empire

In South Africa in the 1980s, for example, we used our influence with the G7, the Commonwealth, and the Francophonie, connected with international leaders, and engaged the African National Congress and the then South African government to fight against Apartheid and then later provided governance and development support during the transition to democracy. In spite of our under performance in the past decade, it is not naïve to think that the world still believes that Canada can make a difference. Donald Goldstein, Jay Shafritz, and Phil Williams, eds.

A fix

These are only a few of the most notable institutions Canada became involved with. Sumner proceeded to outline the original vision of America cherished by the Founding Fathers, radically different from what prevailed among the nations of Europe: They would have no court and no pomp; nor orders, or ribbons, or decorations, or titles.
