Il libro di al-Ḥimyarī è stato tradotto in lingua italiana dall'. This is why I say that the latest MCA developments, including the sacking of the MC leader as Cabinet Minister, has brought great shame not only to MCA, but to the entire Malaysian Chinese community! Lim Kit Siang released this statement on August 18, 1985 and is filed under. When pressed by newsmen, he said that there were various demands by the Chinese community for the ouster of Neo Yee Pan.

In these forty months the MCA, whether of the Neo, Mak or Tan groups, put only to restore some of the lost political, economic, educational, cultural rights, but even worse, there was a unprecedented and wide—ranging erosion of more rights! Furthermore, going back further, if Neo Yee Pan when assuming the post of Acting MCA President, had appointed Tan Koon Swan instead of Mak Hon Kam as Acting Deputy president, Neo Yee Pan would probably not end today being ignominiously sacked from the Cabinet as a Minister. If MCA does not have the power, independence and right to manage its own internal affairs, and to decide who are to be its leaders, it has even less right to influence decision making whether in political, economic, educational, cultural and religious arenas.

The sacking of Neo Yee Pan as Cabinet Minister raises the question as to why he was expelled. The second important lesson from the MCA power crisis is that the Barisan Nasional is not a coalition of equals.
