From its inception, its membership drew on some of England's wealthiest and most influential families.

Minutes of a Whig Club: 1714

Shorey, Major Lechmere, Mr Bagshaw. If Keener be guilty of any offence, let him be prosecuted according to law... We must observe once for all that mobbing men of doubtful principles is not the way to gain friends to the cause of America... What you tell us of the people framing a petition to Lord Howe and the Riots complained of in Baltimore Town have induced the Council of Safety to pass an order... inclosed to you and to each of the Captains.

The declaration of, and form of association, adopted by the General Committee, appointed by the Whig Club, to prepare a plan for a General Association of the People, to procure a repeal of the treason and sedition bills.
