Quiltville's Quips & Snips!!: Rosemary's Orphans!

This pattern has been called many. This resource is much more recent than but it will come in handy to compare my own piecing techniques while creating patterns for this site.

Quiltville's Quips & Snips!!: Rosemary's Orphans!

Denver Post Archives: Quilt Patterns The Denver Post Archives is publishing 25 quilt patterns from the 30s written by Ruby Short McKim 1891-1976. I'll give it a try -- I love 19th century reproduction fabrics, whether from 1861-1865 or the decades prior or following.

Civil War Quilts: Yankee Diary Block 2: Susan B.'s Star

I call it my quilt college, because I figure once I finish it I will have learned a ton of quilting techniques and I have learned some really great techniques so far. In 1830 Margaret's husband died leaving her with four children under 16. You can choose as many dye colours as you want or stick to a particular colour family.

Civil War Ladies Items & Civil War Books , Fall Creek Suttler, Sutler

The story of each woman who made these blocks during the Civil War was remarkable and so sad. I love the way civil war fabrics blend together and the era that they are from when ladies were treated as ladies and respected.

Faithful Quilter: Elaine's Journey: Civil War Give

They liked my ideas and voted to proceed with it. Remove from washer and test for colourfastness — I like to wet the fabric and wring it over a white paper towel. They are pictures of Lincoln upon a tiny flag, bordered with crape.
