Carshalton College

Targeting young people in areas of deprivation, they offer free sessions in sport and other activities, alongside pastoral support, to instill positive values and help prepare our participants for a better life. What is the difference between an asylum seeker and a refugee? We have an active and engaged voluntary and community sector willing to support the integration of refugee families who have resettled in the borough.

Refugee Resettlement

They talked through the immigration process for refugees and asylum seekers and the challenges of providing immigration advice during the Covid-19 pandemic. We shared helpful information about the work they do with the and , and found out about beekeeping. One-to-One Telephone Careers Advice The Careers Information and Advice 1-1 sessions are available to all customers over the age of 18 who would like Information, Advice and Guidance on employability skills.

Adult and community education

The main beneficiaries are unemployed adults, who receive employability skills such as goal-setting, anger and fear management, CV-writing and interview preparation, with the ultimate aim of enabling participants to find employment and realise their potential.

This is a substantial undertaking: councils must provide an initial welcome, housing, relevant social care support, and assistance with English language provision and social integration. Now that demand for new primary mainstream schools is diminishing, the Free Schools Programme should focus on ensuring that new special schools are created to meet SEND demand. The AIRE service provides advice and guidance to service users on the asylum process and their rights, and signposts to different services.

There are currently at least 5630 asylum seekers in London. Many boroughs have experienced issues with schools refusing to admit or keep children with SEND at their schools, despite there being a legal requirement to do so. They are also unable to claim benefits.

Education and learning

The results showed that women in the area wanted the knowledge and skills that would allow them to find good jobs: computing, English, nutrition, keep fit, child care and child hygiene.
