Rhetoric, Plain Language, and Effective Communication: An Insightful Dialogue

Zero Dark Thirty might be the best way to get people interested in an important part of recent American history, but how do you stop them from being completely misled by it? A secular example, taken from Homer's depiction of heroes in his Iliad, gives us a glimpse of internal dialogues and rhetoric: When heroes were alone, faced with difficult situations, and had no interlocutor to address or consult with, they resorted to their own internal dialogues deliberations with self and rhetoric persuasive self-talk so as to address and persuade themselves to do whatever was necessary to cope with their challenges Nienkamp, 2001.

Socrates' Attack on Rhetoric in the "Gorgias"

It could still be objected that rhetoric is only useful for those who want to outwit their audience and conceal their real aims, since someone who just wants to communicate the truth could be straightforward and would not need rhetorical tools.

Rhetoric

New York, NY: Guilford Press. However, in the rhetorical context there are two factors that the dialectician has to keep in mind if she wants to become a rhetorician too, and if the dialectical argument is to become a successful enthymeme.

Aristotle's Rhetoric (Stanford Encyclopedia of Philosophy)

The exciting news is that new PLS resources and guidelines are in development. Part II on rhetoric in the mixed game contains a selection of papers which illustrate the interaction of various components. The concerns about poetry expressed in books III and X would also extend beyond the immediate project of the dialogue, if they carry any water at all, even though the targets Plato names are of course taken from his own times.
