Albert Rutherston

He was aware of the lack of aesthetic and educational stimulation for the masses in 1925 and he had a social conscience.

Albert Rutherston

Following his marriage to actress in 1919 to Marjory Holman, Rutherston took up teaching, first at the Camberwell School of Arts and Crafts before moving to be director of the Oxford School of Painting and Drawing where, after it merged with the Ruskin School of Drawing in 1922, he taught with Paul Nash. UK sales are sent by First Class Mail and International items by Royal Mail Airmail. Thereafter, all purchased lots will be stored at 25 Blythe Road Ltd.
