COURSE

Johns mother apparently remained in the Castle of Pollok until her death, but she does not appear to have been reconciled with her son as he is not mentioned in her will.

Deaf Shepherd

Tracey, Scott and the team enjoyed welcoming you back with their new Christmas lunch menu before we had to close due to further Government Covid restrictions on 26th December. On the stormy night of 23rd January 1773 the north and west facades of the old tower collapsed into the roaring torrent of the Calder following several days of high water.

First Stage Q

Promoting your link also lets your audience know that you are featured on a rapidly growing travel site.

Glasgow School of Art: Archives & Collections

In 1972 the bought the castle, converting it to serve as the. Inside there are three floors but few windows and the tower was not built for comfort.

Q School: First Stage Round

An outstanding new offering from the band that will undoubtedly pitch Deaf Shepherd back to the top of the league in the folk scene.
