That is something far greater, and far more wonderful, than all of the other things that God has created. If the Synod completes its consideration of the women bishops legislation in July, there will be no need for a third group of sessions in November, and this will therefore be final occasion at which the Archbishop of Canterbury will preside, with the Archbishop of York, at a meeting of the General Synod.

They are NOT the most important report and leaving it at the end of the session will often avoid detailing or nitpicking minutia. In that connection, the volume details the emergence of GAFCON Global Anglican Future Conference , organized to extend and deepen the fight started by Akinola and his allies, and this book provides them a wealth of primary source material to make their case before a denomination which has suffered substantial loss of numbers and spiritual power in the regions where liberalism has had its sway. In his address to the members of ARCIC, Pope Francis also recognized this factor.
