So where does that leave creditors? Delaware to prevent loss of shareholder value due to related party transactions, particularly those between the company and a controlling shareholder or group.

The Case for Radical Corporate Governance Reform

I hear about the various ESG rating firms who send time-intensive surveys and assign scores to your businesses based on metrics that wildly differ from each other. Although this is a welcome move, a lot depends on the process followed by the nomination committee and the extent to which the nomination process is transparent. In the context of this increased competition, the CIGA is very welcome.
