Germans prepare to protest Versailles Treaty terms

But again and again, says Klaus Hesse from the Topography of Terror Documentation Center in Berlin, he maintained publicly that he was taking the peaceful route. A stab in the back German cartoon: Wilson goes to meet his master in hell. Inevitably, it proved impossible to frame a treaty which would both satisfy the demands of the French and British populations for a punitive treaty and comply with German conceptions of a fair and 'Wilsonian' peace. For example, four power summits, with the heads of state of the US, Russia, Britain and France in attendance continued throughout the 1950s, eventually shriveling into nothingness as American imperialism consolidated its dominance.
