Kokoro as ecological insight : the concept of heart in Japanese literature

Viglielmo with Agustin Jacinto Zavala eds.

Taiwan genjūmin no seikatsu yōgu / Tenri Daigaku, Tenrikyō Dōyūsha kyōhen.

The blatant sinophilia of some of the Japanese Confucians vexed those Japanese who wanted to deepen the appreciation of their own ancient language and texts.

Kokoro as ecological insight : the concept of heart in Japanese literature

To modernize as quickly as possible, a Western country was identified as the model to emulate for each academic field. Another area where ignorance of Japanese holographic thinking has led to Western misinterpretation is in the so-called aesthetic of minimalism.

Taiwan genjūmin no seikatsu yōgu / Tenri Daigaku, Tenrikyō Dōyūsha kyōhen.

Nothing is ever simply material without somehow also having some spirituality; nothing is ever simply spiritual without somehow also having some materiality. Perhaps it could work again. His image in the temples is usually gilded from head to foot.

Reasons for a new bridge

Japanese philosophers have historically interacted intensively with a multitude of philosophies outside their native boundaries—most prominently Chinese, Indian, Korean, and Western.

Reasons for a new bridge

It is concluded that the Japanese kokoro tradition kept alive for over one thousand years the metaphorical identification of man and nature.

Hito mono kokoro = (1986 edition)

Bodai is the same word as the Sanscrit Bodhi, signifying the supreme enlightenment,--the knowledge that leads to Buddhahood; but it is often used by Japanese Buddhists in the sense of divine bliss, or the Buddha-state itself. Learn new skills, develop the ideal personality you want to have.

Utagawa Kunisada I, Visiting Komachi, from the series Modern Beauties as the Seven Komachi

Human life is like the dew of morning.
