Talk with them of the love of God, in sending his Son into the world, and of the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge ; of their duty to love the Lord, and of the promise of grace, to enable them to love him, Deut. Erskine corresponded in clerical services during 206 LIFE AND DIARY OF his residence at Portmoak ; those of them at least, whose history is, in some points, particularly connected with his own. But, however that were, and though I much regret what I cannot help, that your having joined in communion with a church, if not opposite to, yet many ways distinct from this, has, I fear, rendered it impracticable or improbable, that we can be brethren in judgment and opinion, as well as in nature and blood ; yet I reckon a brotherly communi- cation to be duty, abstracting from all known and open differences that are betwixt the Church of Scotland, and that whereof you are now, as I perceive, an eni- nent member ; especially since I hope there is a cor- dial agreement between us in fundamental points, that are of absolute necessity to eternal salvation.

A Narrative and state of the proceedings of the judicatures of the Church of Scotland, against Masters Ebenezer Erskine, William Wilson, Alexander Moncrieff, and James Fisher, late ministers thereof. Wherein the said proceedings are fairly stated and fully vindicated, from the aspersions cast upon them by these men, and their adherents.
