SHIRAT HAYAM

Shvut Yaakov 3:42 quotes the Shnei Luchot Habrit that it should be postponed, but disagrees and says to say it on , and quotes the Maharil Teshuva 136 as saying the same.

SHIRAT HAYAM

On September 17, 1948, Lehi was suspected of the UN mediator, Count , in Jerusalem. See Yabia Omer 4:47 and Yalkut Yosef Moadim page 34 for a summary of the opinions on this matter. If the first day is and therefore we do not blow the , is recited on the second day after lishmoa kol.

SHIRAT HAYAM

Rav Mordechai Lebhav Magen Avot, Orach Chaim 582:9 writes how in some communities, one person recites the entire silent out loud, and everyone else follows along silently. New Leaders Considerably weakened by the loss of their leader and others captured or killed, Lehi was on the verge of complete disintegration when some of its detainees managed to escape from prison and regrouped their forces. Rav Moshe Shternbuch in Teshuvot Vehanhagot 1:346 agrees but says that should be said earlier in the day so tashlich could be said immediately afterwards because he doesn't think it is so simple that it's permissible to carry the siddur.

Shir HaShirim Rabbah

As the Pesikta Rabbati was composed about 845 C.

Shir HaShirim Rabbah

Most ashkenaz women do recite shehecheyanu with candle lighting. On March 17, 1947, Moshe Barazani was for having a hand grenade in his possession.

SHIRAT HAYAM

A complete in gathering of exiles in the Kingdom of Israel. Setting up a social order in the spirit of Jewish morality and prophetic justice. Lubinchik was also caught later by the British, imprisoned, and transported to Africa where he died of illness.

Board of Directors

If there is a concern that people will carry books anyway, it should be done the next day. If the sephardic blower, recites anyway, the congregation has nevertheless fulfilled their obligation of reciting it. Talmudic Interpretations, taken from The Living Torah, R.
