World Youth Day participants' reflections on Pope John Paul II

And holiness is not a question of age; it is a matter of living in the Holy Spirit, just as Kateri Tekakwitha did here in America and so many other young people have done.

II World Youth Day, 1987

Upon his arrival on Tuesday, July 27, he astonished everyone, even his own helpers from the Vatican, when he ignored the hydraulic lift prepared for him, and opted instead to descend the steps of the airport gangplank.

World Youth Day

Many and enticing are the voices that call out to you from all sides: many of these voices speak to you of a joy that can be had with money, with success, with power. For more than 600 years, in the Monastery of Jasna Gora at Czestochowa, Mary has been venerated in the miraculous icon of the Black Madonna. How splendid and luminous are the words addressed to us in this respect by St Paul in his hymn to charity! Holiness is always youthful, just as eternal is the youthfulness of God.

John Paul II devoted his life to youth—to us.

John Paul II to the youth of the world in Toronto: “Be salt of the earth, light of the world”

By making even a small donation you help ensure our future as an important voice in the Catholic Church. But that was no reason to despair. Is not this what the world most needs today? We spend our lives seeking fulfillment.

Pope John Paul II Speaks to Youth

For those who first heard Jesus, as for us, the symbol of light evokes the desire for truth and the thirst for the fullness of knowledge which are imprinted deep within every human being. And how much more this reality holds good for the life of the young, during this phase of special responsibility and hope, development of the person, definition of the meaning and the great ideals and projects of life, and aspiration to truth and to the attainment of genuine happiness! Take Action This week, start a Bible study with some of your peers or friends.

World Youth Day

It is essential, too, that this message of friendship also reach those who do not accept religious faith.
