The Rosh Yeshivah's unique blend of depth of understanding, broad knowledge of the Talmud and Midrash, skill with gematria, command of history, and understanding of human nature combine to present the reader with a fascinating commentary. Rabbi David Feinstein, Rosh Yeshivah of Mesivtha Tifereth Jerusalem, is renowned as one of the world's leading poskim authorities in Torah law. Indeed, we see in Megillah 15a that there is a dispute about the hirhur caused by repeating the name of Rach-v, the wife of Yehoshua, because she was so beautiful.

Let us do the same for Esth-r and V-shti and also Z-resh , in order to make our megillah-reading all the more holy and desired by Hashem. Advertising is allowed under certain circumstances.

KOL DODI

Nobody's shteiging away in kollel, wearing a lot of black, making kugel. Because of this holy mission and in keeping with the living spirit of the Torah, we have respectfully closed this site on our eternal day of rest.

parshablog: Purifying The Megillah

There is none like it -- as you will surely agree as you read this, his newest original work. And yet, on the holy day of Purim, many will gather in shuls and hear the names of two great beauties pronounced, multiple times. To top it all off, the Jews go to battle and kill off lots pple at the end! And he concludes that יפה קורין לה לכלוכית שהיא מלכוכת במומין, that her name, L-chluch-s, was indeed beautiful because it was fitting for her specific traits.
