The book starts and ends when George explains how he got into a wreck in high school and it almost killed him and severely injured him.

Skywalking: The Life And Films of George Lucas by Dale Pollock

Mind you, I've just been reading Charles Beaumont on Bela Lugosi and he's - amazingly - all over the place, getting Lugosi mixed up with Dwight Frye, for instance. It was explaining how George Lucas was thinking and how he explained things on paper.

Skywalking: The Life and Films of George Lucas, Updated Edition

It was an interesting read. Dale Pollock is president of Peak Productions and a successful producer of twelve feature films which have received four Academy Award nominations.
