It does not offer a deep analysis of the source or logic of much of what it charts, there are very few qualitative judgements about what might have worked. What I happened to notice were often things with little significance which I gave importance to by over analysing them and turning them into things that I was looking out for. When my boiler began making noises, I debated whether or not boilers counted as furniture because furniture emitting loud wraps would be another signal of my upcoming death.

Cursed by mortality: exploring the Pre

The Magical Universe is mostly a catalogue, sorting magic by focus rather than time, place or surrounding culture. The abilities of men and women differ.
