NARRATOR: As he took the oath of office, Donald Trump made no pretense of seeking unity or healing. They care about they're losing their jobs, they're losing their country.

America's Great Divide: From Obama to Trump

Not random, but as a means of control, a way to terrorize and oppress; an act that he imagined would incite fear and recrimination, violence and suspicion; an act that he presumed would deepen divisions that trace back to our nation's original sin. It was unfathomable to imagine 20 children, 6- and 7-year-old first-graders, being gunned down in that violent and destructive way, and then six adults who were trying to help.
