Mikhail Tal's Greatest Game!

He immediately built upon his success in the 7th game and it seemed like the match is virtually decided. Then, after a series of draws, Tal won again in the sixth game with the help of the famous and thunderous knight sacrifice on f4. Tal evoked the memories of the long forgotten romantic school with his dazzling sacrifices and mind-boggling complications, which threw his opponents completely off their balance.

Mikhail Tal is the 8th World Chess Champion, reigning from 1960-1961. His 21st move in the game is considered by many Tal fans to be the greatest chess move of all time, and it is probably the most gutsy chess move ever played in chess. Tal senses the positional threats acutely and on move 21, faced with the decision to retreat from the threat of 22.

Chess World Championship Matches

Robert James Fischer qualified for the Candidates as well. Mikhail Tal won, becoming the challenger in the 1960 championship match.

Finally, the problem of preparing for a match is also significantly more difficult. The top two players from the previous tournament, Smyslov and Keres, were seeded directly into the tournament and joined by the top six from the interzonal. I have not yet mentioned that my opponent was an unsurpassed master of home preparation.

TALBOTVINNIK 1960 MATCH FOR THE WORLD CHESS CHAMPIONSHIP

That shouldn't be a surprise because Tal was the finest writer to become world champion. Our library is the biggest of these that have literally hundreds of thousands of different products represented. In the final round Fischer had black against Gligoric; while Bronstein, Olafsson, Szabo and Pachman had relatively weaker opponents.
