This book concerns the campaign to capture Salamanca in Spain during June-July 1812. He's already failed to kill Captain Richard Sharpe once.

Sharpe's Sword (TV programme)

And thus the best Cornwell book I have read in years comes to an end. Up until now I hadn't realized how Wellington was such a good defensive player and how much potential mutiny one can generate when the team doesn't know how long it takes to get inside someone's head. The French 31st Light Infantry Regiment on the right flank acted as rear guard.
