Tanzania: Safari on Tarangire, Serengeti National Park and Ngorongoro Crater Conservation Area

Once as high as Kilimanjaro, two hundred and fifty thousand years ago an explosion blew out the entire eastern side of the mountain, leaving only the vast crater you can see nowadays.

The Observer of Tanzania thanked the World Heritage Centre for the support provided to his country, and assured the Bureau that Tanzania will communicate with the Centre concerning the construction of the road. Then, we passed large boulders that had a lion basking in the morning sun on the top. That's all free as well! There was so much adrenaline and excitement involved and we also got to see our first lion hunt and kill! On our way back to camp, we saw 2 male lions with 4 cubs as if they were the babysitters while the females were away hunting.

Tanzania: Ngorongoro Conservation Area/Serengeti National Park

Serengeti National Park, Ngorongoro Conservation Area and Lake Eyasi. The road from the camp were muddy, I came to realise that everything that happens in the wild is an adventure of its own, and they are the way they are to suit the nature, so for us we have to accept the way they are.

PPT

Most of the presentations and slideshows on PowerShow. They got so excited once they understood how the camera worked.
