Plain Reasons for Presbyterians Dissenting... by Clarkson at SWRB

In 1873 he was presented by his friends with a residence at Forrest Hill, London, which he named Grampian Lodge; D. The Church used to appoint the Professors of Divinity along with certain other chairs but the cost of maintaining these chairs necessitated transferring patronage to the or of each university.

How the Church of Scotland's Disruption of 1843 unfolded

Presbyterian Dissenters do not all agree among themselves, they are of so many opinions, that there is no End of them. He who is first instated, by faith on the person and mediation of the Lord Jesus Christ, in this heavenly society, will be guided by the light and privileges of it into such ways of divine worship in churches here below as shall cause him to improve and grow in his interest in that above.

A vindication of the ministers and ruling elders of the Church of Scotland, who have taken the abjuration : wherein it is made evident, that they are not thereby engaged in their stations, to oblige the successor, when he comes to the crown, to join in communion with the Church of England, as some ignorant people are made to believe : Lauder, Alexander, 1668

I said the Brother is for the negative of this question, pa. The General Assembly, for the more decent performance of the public praises of God, do recommend to Presbyteries to use endeavours to have such schoolmasters chosen as are capable to teach the common tunes; and that Presbyteries take care that children be taught to sing the said common tunes; and that the said schoolmasters not only pray with their scholars, but also sing a part of a psalm with them, at least once every day. This noble monastery had its full share in the havoc and desolation of the long English wars.

An Informatory Vindication — Reformed Presbyterian Church (Covenanted)

That this is the true doctrine on this subject, is evident, in the first place, from the absence of any express command, binding the church in all ages to conform her mode of government in every respect to the example of the apostolic churches. Turning then directly to our subject, I want first to state three different understandings of New Testament eldership. The Principal of St Mary's College is Dr and as he is an ordained Church of Scotland minister, he is entitled to use the whilst in office.

Secondly, As to the only Instance adduced in that Article of the Libel, Mr. For their Calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the Ruin of them both? They have found great edification in the ministry of one or two pastors. Assembly does thereby declare all Sentences past against any Ministers,??? Also, how few were not displeased with him! He was after- wards min.
