Nashville, TN: Vanderbilt University Press.

Poema

While Borges was the great popularizer of the review of an imaginary work, he had developed the idea from 's , a book-length review of a non-existent German work, and the biography of its equally non-existent author. Like much of the Argentine opposition to Perón, SADE had become marginalized due to persecution by the State, and very few active members remained.

Poema

On October 30, 1983, Argentine democracy refuted me splendidly.

Jorge Luis Borges

He had little formal education, no qualifications and few friends. From 1975 until the time of his death, Borges traveled internationally.

The book includes two types of writing: the first lies somewhere between non-fictional essays and short stories, using fictional techniques to tell essentially true stories. Little by little I came to realize the strange irony of events. Borges concluded: It is useless to list the examples; one can only denounce the duplicity of the fictions of the former regime, which can't be believed and were believed.
