Of the remaining applications to the Industrial Registrar all except that relating to the Victorian Branch of the Australasian Society of Engineers were refused, this latter application still being under consideration. The third important matter that I wish to discuss is covered by clause 22, which regulates the admission of employees to organizations. The significant economies an institution can reach, are valued at exactly the same proportion as those available to a family of four, a 20 percent deduction being equal to a 25 percent increase.

In this column last year, when the issue began to be debated, I wrote about the dangers of the proposed stop-and-search laws, aimed at giving police the powers to frisk anyone in certain parts of Perth without the centuries-old requirement of reasonable suspicion. In 1915 a claim was made before the Arbitration Court for a special rate of pay in respect of certain wheat lumpers who produced evidence to prove that they were not ordinary lumpers. Thus people on benefits get trapped into dependence.
