Where did Beatrix Potter live? Guide to Beatrix Potter's Lake District

We were lucky enough to walk in the footsteps of the inspiring author, illustrator and business-woman as part of a Beatrix Potter tour of the Lakes, including the first farm she bought with the proceeds from Peter Rabbit, the castle where she holidayed with her family as a teenager, and the home she shared with her husband William Heelis. During the first and second World Wars, the Hill Top Farm meadows were intensively ploughed to grow crops during periods of rationing.
