Arresting activists, banning NGOs are dangerous for the future of Indian democracy

On August 22, 2020, Egyptian National Security officers arrested two brothers of Mona el-Shazly, a Birmingham, UK-based political activist who formerly published Facebook videos criticizing the government, she said in an email to Human Rights Watch. Dish Ravi, 22, who is a graduate in Bachelor of Business Administration from a private college in Bengaluru, is also one of the founding members of a group named 'Fridays For Future India'. Since the end of, NGOs have had an increased role in, particularly in the fields of humanitarian assistance and poverty alleviation.

Nonprofit, NGO & Activist Public Relations

Campaigning NGOs must plan and host demonstrations and events which will attract media, their defining activity. In doing so, she recalled other racist attacks in the past year that she believes have not been highlighted enough.
