Pollinators show flower colour preferences but flowers with similar colours do not attract similar pollinators

A bushy, upright, handsomely shaped shrub with large, semi-glossy, dark green leaves which provide an ideal backdrop for its summer-long floral display. Bright light and occasional summer monsoons for best performance. Now, there are countless variegated forms in differing heights and mixes of color from pinks, whites, reds, burgundies, and every shade in between.
