The right education provides possibilities and hope, introduces you to other people, other worlds and cultures, and allows you to intelligently make decisions about your life that can place you among the builders and movers of the world, rather than forever standing on corners talking bad about black people, white people, and wishing for this or that to materialize. Be it the reelection of President George W.

Recognize 1995 Driven by hip-hop music,
popular culture, national and global events,
and the specifics of his own life, Kevin Powell's voice is one of the boldest and brightest in the 1990's poetry renaissance.
Yes, one can have a good education and still be a fool, but the odds are against it.
