Title III

Children ages 3 to 5 are developing knowledge of letters and the sounds they make -- known as phonological awareness see reference 4. We can begin to learn another language when we tap into the entrainment power music has. Language or speech disorders can occur with other learning disorders that affect reading and writing.

Language and Early Literacy Development

Title 22, Chapter 4, Section 4. Your child will also become a better storyteller, as they learn to put words together in different ways and build different types of sentences.

Reinforcing Language Skills for Our Youngest Learners

This is a great model for supporting emergent bilingual children, but it is most feasible when all of the children speak the same home language e. When you finish talking, pause and give your child a turn to respond. Can he take turns in 1-on-1 and small group conversations?
