

Níl aon tinteán

Ababúna - Wild Goose Bronze Plaque Aon Teintean

Description: -

-Níl aon tinteán

-Níl aon tinteán

Notes: Cló: Syntax le nasclitreacha a dhear Caoimhín Ó Baoill

Clóbhualadh: Colour Reproductions.

This edition was published in 1983

Filesize: 44.88 MB

Tags: #Tinteán

Irish Proverbs in Gaelic and English / Celtic Wisdom from Ireland

Beware of the public house or limpets will be your food. Translation: What is seldom is wonderful. A Aithníonn ciaróg ciaróg eile.

Irish Proverbs in Gaelic and English / Celtic Wisdom from Ireland

Is fearr an tsáinte ná na táinte.

Island Ireland: Irish Proverbs (translated into English)

A handsome woman is easily dressed. C Cailín ag Mór agus Mór ag iarraidh déirce.

Daltaí na Gaeilge

Your son is your son until he marries, but your daughter is your daughter until you die. © Under the Willow Print Co. The mills of God grind slowly but they grind finely.

Tinteán

This is a very famous old Irish saying given a modern spin in bright blue neon. A fat Christmas makes for a tight graveyard. A drink precedes a story.

Related Books

- Fertility technology - the baby debate
- Peruskoulun mukautetun opetussuunnitelman tavoitteet, niiden saavuttaminen sekä opettajien kokemuks
- Assessment of techniques for cervical cancer screening / project director, Hussein Z. Noorani, proje
- Bound to exile - the Victorians in India.
- Kleppners advertising procedure