While the companies that make up The Agora operate independently, they rely on these principles to help customers to expand their minds, embrace bold thinking, and enrich their lives. In other words, quality isn't a guarantee of success. Dave was not only able to add the audio but, provide contact information in video format while the sample played.

Small Presses

As a result of these fears of rejection and criticism, they play it safe and settle for far less than they are truly capable of earning. Small presses often have more flexible contract terms than the Big Five.
