The first section at either end is paved although the remainder is a stony bridleway. A first class holiday location at any time of the year. High Dow Crag offers private parking for 1 car.

Walks in the Lake District

The summit is marked by a fine cairn on a stony top, built close to the Greenburn edge of the ridge.

Coppermines Valley and Coniston The trig pillar on the Old Man The large cairn on the summit Coniston Wetherlam The Old Man has a fine view, down to Low Water and across the bulk of the Coniston fells. A Coniston holiday cottage takes you slightly away from the hustle and bustle of Bowness and Lake Windermere, to a wilder landscape full of adventure. The initial climb is onto Brown Pike 682m with views of Dow Crag left and The Old Man of Coniston 803m on the right.

Dow Crag via The South Rake

The story was dismissed by the police who believed the makeshift bomb to have been the work of cavers, hoping to blast through to the next level, unaware of weight of water behind.

Dow Crag via The South Rake

Very clean and tidy, well decorated, extremely well equipped and very quiet. With the southern slopes of the Old Man on one side and imposing face of Dow Crag towering ahead, we climb steadily to the copper-green tarn of Goats Water. I will do a little part of that in a minute.
