Worship & Liturgy

Therefore all should hold in the greatest esteem the liturgical life of the diocese centered around the bishop, especially in his cathedral church. The Church has not adopted any particular style of art as her own.

Archdiocese of Halifax

Instead of gathering with large groups of family, friends, and our church communities we are forced to meet in smaller settings this year. We rejoice that you continue your graceful initiative with us with the work of Your Holy Spirit.

In it full public worship is performed by the Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, that is, by the Head and his members. Bishops, either personally or through suitable priests who are gifted with a knowledge and love of art, should have a special concern for artists, so as to imbue them with the spirit of sacred art and of the sacred liturgy.

Liturgy

All artists who, prompted by their talents, desire to serve God's glory in holy Church should ever remember that they are engaged in a kind of holy imitation of God the Creator: that they are concerned with works destined to be used in Catholic worship, for the edification of the faithful and to foster their piety and religious formation. For this purpose the rites are to be simplified, due care being taken to preserve their substance. Only those should be extended to the universal Church which commemorate saints who are truly of universal importance.

During Lent, penance should be not only internal and individual but also external and social. In particular cases, and for adequate reasons, ordinaries may dispense their subjects, wholly or in part, from the obligation of reciting the divine office, or they may change it to another obligation. Provided that the substantial unity of the Roman rite is preserved, provision shall be made, when revising the liturgical books, for legitimate variations and adaptations to different groups, regions and peoples, especially in mission countries.

The Lord's Day is the original feast day, and it should be proposed to the faithful and taught to them so that it may become in fact a day of joy and of freedom from work. These latter not only may be changed but ought to be changed with the passage of time, if they have suffered from the intrusion of anything out of harmony with the inner nature of the liturgy or have become less suitable. But in order that the liturgy may be able to produce its full effects it is necessary that the faithful come to it with proper dispositions, that their minds be attuned to their voices, and that they cooperate with heavenly grace lest they receive it in vain. Today we are anxious to celebrate your mighty deeds that drew us to you and we are thankful for the forgiveness that you have offered to us.

In fact the Church has, with good reason, always claimed the right to pass judgment on the arts, deciding which of the works of artists are in accordance with faith, piety, and the laws religiously handed down, and are to be considered suitable for sacred use.
