Does It Matter What You Imagine God Is Like?

Being up front about your failures and your shortcomings helps you to become a better person, and to bring yourself closer with God. Did I drift too far from him when we moved? As I started to look closer, the details of his face started to reveal themselves.

How Do You Imagine God?

For theists, the issue can be a sore point because they are certain that it is grammatically incorrect to spell the word as 'god,' thus leading them to wonder if are simply ignorant about good grammar—or, more likely, are deliberately trying to insult them and their beliefs.

Genesis 3:9 Originally, God walked with Adam and Eve, meaning they had an intimate, personal relationship, but they had more than that...they had fellowship with God. God is spoken of in anthropomorphic images as being like a person: God as king, lord, father, mother, warrior shepherd, and potter, to cite a partial list.

Does It Matter What You Imagine God Is Like?

One view that eventually arose was that the image was the human's natural resemblance to God, the power of reason and will.
