Paris, Texas [Original Motion Picture Soundtrack]

I can't imagine one without the other. The dialogue comes from a scene where the characters played by and have a particularly emotional meeting.

Paris, Texas [Original Motion Picture Soundtrack]

The score is stark, quiet, and as uplifting as it is sad.

Ry Cooder " Paris, Texas

Cooder's haunting, solo slide guitar mirrors the immense, barren Texas landscape in a way that is spellbinding, exquisite, and unforgettable. Im a huge Wenders fan, and this soundtrack much like the Blade Runner and like the Jackie Brown Soundtrack feels like the nuts and bolts of the atmosphere of the film. The album is at once alien and organic.

Paris, Texas - directed by Wim Wenders and starring Harry Dean Stanton, Nastassja Kinski, and Dean Stockwell - is a truly astounding movie.

Paris, Texas

The music is incredibly integral, and brings out images of deserts and cactus, blue baking sky and shimmering landscapes from the go. Without context it is only a well-crafted speech, and including it here feels like superfluous padding.
