

Young carers perspectives of the impact of parental/carer mental ill health.

The Author) - Parents and mental health

Description: -

- Young carers perspectives of the impact of parental/carer mental ill health.
- Young carers perspectives of the impact of parental/carer mental ill health.

Notes: Thesis (M. Sc. (Social Work)) - University of Ulster, 1999.

This edition was published in 1999

Filesize: 46.92 MB

Tags: #Psychological #Distress #in #Carers #of #People #with #Mental #Disorders

Mental health of children and parents â€”a strong connection

A higher proportion of young people aged 16 to 25 who had caring responsibilities at time 1 were unemployed or economically inactive due to long-term sickness or disability at time 2, compared to young people without caring responsibilities. Due to the lack of research evidence in this particular area, and as recommended by Hong et al.

Parents and mental health

Psychiatric disorders in spouse caregivers of care recipients with Alzheimer's disease and matched controls:A diathesis-stress model of psychopathology,Journal of abnormal psychology.

Psychological Distress in Carers of People with Mental Disorders

Lastly, in the event that a study met one or two criteria, the study was classified as low quality, i. Build a support network Find people you can rely on for practical and emotional support. Correlation does not however imply causality and as yet there are no prospective studies showing a clear relationship between caring and subsequent problems that would lend support to the hypothesis that they are causally related.

Experiences and satisfaction of children, young people and their parents with alternative mental health models to inpatient settings: a systematic review

Young carers: Challenging the facts and politics of research into children and caring. In aggregate, these costs amounted to £1048 million annually in 2017.

The Mental Well

British Journal of Guidance and Counselling, 30 3 , 229—246.

Experiences and satisfaction of children, young people and their parents with alternative mental health models to inpatient settings: a systematic review

This review aims to 1 summarise the current literature on factors that affect mental well-being in carers of autistic adults and 2 map these results to an existing conceptual model of carer psychological well-being for individuals with developmental disabilities.

Related Books

- Meiji Ishin no gengo to shiryō
- The Role of Fuel Additives to Control Environmental Emissions and Ash Fouling: Technical Coal Resear
- Second-Year Shoot Development in Black Spruce Picea Mariana \(Mill.\) B.S.P. Container Seedlings.
- Alarming facts - a document on the persecution of nuclear war opponents.
- Tomorrow is another day - the fictions of James Gordon Farrell