Multiple ephemeral regimes also existed during this period, including the and dynasties on , and the Ming loyalist on Taiwan. China has often been blamed for debt trapping the governments it has loaned money to for infrastructure projects and taking control of natural assets. The answer, clearly, is that American antagonism towards China is simply rooted in a traditional power struggle, one between a declining hegemon and an aspiring one.

Angry investors, unable to retrieve their money, engulfed the Shanghai public security bureau, demanding government action. But China's increasingly restive population of 1.

The Dilemma

Such concerns were apparently realised after the finalisation, in principle, of a Comprehensive Agreement on Investment CAI between EU and China in December. Likewise, ease of Chinese navy entry into the Indian Ocean would heighten US security concerns.

COLUMN

The termination of the treaty ended the obligation that both parties had to provide the other with aid and military support in the event of an attack. However, Taiwanese companies and entrepreneurs in China, known as Taishang, now want to sell their finished products in China, one of the fastest-growing domestic markets in the world. There is genuine apprehension in Thailand that the construction of the Kra canal would physically separate the southern provinces from the rest of the country and thus further entrench divisions, inflaming the fight for independence.
