In projecting annual incidence rates based upon this shortened data collection period, the Westat study team used the pace of reporting documented in the NIS-1. The alliance essentially involved efforts to integrate Siebel's eBusiness Applications with SPSS programs like Clementine and CustomerCentric.

The rate of child poverty, the growing number of children living in shelters for the homeless, and the drug epidemic has led many thoughtful observers to conclude that the risk for child abuse is higher today than at any time in recent memory. Consistent with this pattern was the higher proportion of unemployed mothers reported for child neglect. Third, some of the evaluative coding was not clearly justified.
